To the Voters of the United States: The Democratic House of Representatives, having by a party vote, adopted a resolution which, under pretense of an investigation, is to lay the foundation for the revolutionary expulsion of the President from his office.

We call therefore upon all who opposed the Revolution of 1861, without distinction of party, to rally again to the support of law, order, and stable government, and to overthrow with defeat the reckless agitators who, to gain political power, would add to the present distress of the country by shaking the foundations of the government they tell us in a year will be destroyed.—Address of the Republican Congressional Committee.

NOT YET.

During the past week the State papers have been supplied with the information that Hon. Horace Rublee, had made arrangements to enter into business in Boston, and that he would resign the Chairmanship of the Republican State Central Committee. It now turns out that the report is not authorized. The State Journal, of Monday evening offers an explanation, and says: "Without going into particulars, we can say that all these reports are unauthorized and without foundation; that Mr. Ru-blee has not resigned his position as Chairman of the State Central Committee, nor has he any immediate intention of doing so. In a note to the State Journal last winter, he stated distinctly that if at any time he should decide to take up his residence in another state, he should resign this position, and make it public at once. The same is his intention still. But as he has no expectation at present of ceasing to be a resident of the State, there is no reason for his giving up the place almost forced upon him by the last Republican State Convention; nor do the members of that party desire that he should do so. We trust that with this explanation, the correspondents of the several papers will cease to insist that he has resigned, and will desist from placing him in business against his will."

THE FRAUD COMMITTEE.

The Committee appointed by Speaker Randall and announced to the House of Representatives on Monday, is composed of seven Democrats and four Republicans.
The Republican part of the Committee is good, but it might have been made better.
Instead of Hiscok, of New York, we would like to have seen Conger, of Michigan, on the Committee. He would have been a match for any Democrat on the Committee. Still our side of the Committee is strong, and the cause of justice and honesty will not suffer in their hands. It was thought by many of the leading Republicans advisable not to have anything to do with the investigation, but leave the matter entirely in the hands of the Democrats, and allow them to run it as they saw fit. But after a consultation, it was deemed the wiser course to serve. As this Committee is one of the most important ever appointed by Congress, its object being to make an investigation which is "to lay the foundation for the revolutionary expulsion of the President of the United States for office," we will give our readers some ideas of the men who compose it. There are eleven in number, and following is a sketch of each:

Clarkson N. Potter, the author of the resolution, and chairman of the Committee, represents Westchester, New York. He is 54 years old, and is regarded as a good lawyer. He never filled an office until he was elected to the Forty-first Congress. He is now serving his sixth year in that body. Potter argued the cause in the Supreme Court of the United States in which the legal tender act was held unconstitutional, and was subsequently selected by the court to discuss that question when it was heard.

William R. Morrison, Democrat, represents the 17th district in Illinois. He is a lawyer by profession, but not so brilliant nor prominent as Potter. He served four years in the Legislature and one year was Speaker of the House. He has been in Congress four terms serving in the 38, 43, 44, and 45 Congresses.

Eppa Hunter, of Virginia, of course is a Democrat, as he is an ex-Confederate brigadier. He is a lawyer by profession but not a prominent one. He was one of the first to secede in 1861. He entered the Confederate army as a colonel, and after the battle of Gettysburg was promoted to a brigadier general. In April 1865 he was captured by the Union forces, but was released in July following. He was elected to the 43, 44, and 45 Congress, and served on the Electoral Commission in 1877.

John A. McMahon, of Ohio, was a student and a disciple of Vallandigham, with whom he studied law at Dayton. He is a good lawyer and an extreme partisan. He never filled an office of any consequence till he was elected to Congress in 1874, and was re-elected in 1876.

Joseph C. S. Blackburn, of Kentucky, is another Confederate, and as a matter of course is a Democrat. He entered the Confederate army in 1861, and served during the war. He was elected to the Kentucky Legislature after the war, and was elected to Congress in 1874, and again in 1876.

William S. Stenger, of Pennsylvania, is one of the youngest Democrats in the House, and beat his opponent in 1876 by only 69 votes. He has the reputation of being an excellent and a successful lawyer.
He is now serving his second term.

Thomas H. Cobb, of Indiana, ornaments the tail-end of the Democratic portion of the Committee. He is a lawyer, and in politics is extreme in his views. He is serving his first term in Congress.

The Republican side of the Committee is headed by Ben Butler, who is one of the best known men in the United States, and therefore needs no further notice. He is one of the most distinguished lawyers in the country, and if he can maintain a balance long enough to finish the investigation, he will be of great service in securing a full and impartial inquiry into the alleged frauds.

Frank Hiscok is comparatively a young man, and is a lawyer. He is a man of good abilities. He was first elected to the 44th Congress, and in 1876 to the 45th. He represents the 25th district, embracing the counties of Cortland and Onondaga.

One of the best men on the Committee is Jacob D. Cox, of Ohio. He is a fine lawyer, and a trustworthy man. He served with distinction during the war, and was promoted from a brigadier to a major-generalship, for gallantry and ability displayed at South Mountain and Antietam. In 1865 he was elected Governor of Ohio, and in 1869 was appointed Secretary of the Interior, by President Grant, but resigned in 1870. He was first elected to Congress in 1876.

Thomas B. Reed, of Maine, is a young lawyer of much promise, and is a thorough Republican. He was acting paymaster in the United States navy during a portion of the war, and after that served several years in the State Legislature, and in 1870-72 was Attorney-General of the State. He was first elected to Congress in 1876.

An examination into the revenue frauds in the Cincinnati district reveals the fact that a good deal of swindling has been going on. It has been discovered that many liquor dealers have neglected to destroy stamps or empty packages and have returned the same to the rectifiers and they have been received. A large number of stamps for fermented liquors removed from packages have been found in the possession of dealers. Empty beer kegs with stamps perfect have been found in wagons.
The rectifiers, in many cases, have not made proper entries and have refilled packages. Several wholesale dealers have neglected to have their books filled out, and have rectified, compounded and sent out spirits without stamps as required. In many cases tobacco manufacturers have failed to make the required entries in the books. Many cigar manufacturers have not complied with the law and there is evidence that some of them are defrauding the government. The guilty parties will soon be brought to trial.

On Monday bids were opened at the office of the Secretary of State at Madison for printing the reports of the Supreme Court. The law provides that the State shall be supplied with 250 copies of each volume to be printed free of expense, and that the members of the legal fraternity shall be furnished the reports at the contract price. There were two bids, one by Callaghan & Co., of Chicago, and the other by Banks Brothers, of New York. The latter bid $1.35 per volume, and the former $1.24. Callaghan being the lowest will be awarded the contract. The State Journal establishment will do the printing of the volumes. Heretofore it has done the work and has done it well.

General Grant is receiving the most delicate attention in Paris. To some of the foreigners he is as interesting an object as the Exposition. Among the noted ones who have called on him at his home are President McMahon and wife, Prince Hassan of Egypt, Prince Albert and Prince Frederic, of Austria, the Prince of Wales, and the Prince and Princess of Denmark.
Grant will hardly spoil in consequence of the flattering attention he has received.

Last week Governor William E. Smith and wife were given a brilliant reception in Washington by Judge McArthur, formerly of this State. The Wisconsin people in Washington were present beside a large number of Washingtonians. The reception which took place in Judge McArthur's magnificent residence, was a high compliment to Governor Smith and wife, and an honor to the Judge.

The Greenbackers will hold a mass convention at Madison on the sixth of June, to nominate a candidate for Congress in the second district. The man who is nominated will wear the honor of once having run for Congress, but he will deeply appreciate what it is to be overwhelmingly defeated.

The Democrats in the House of Representatives are in a bad fix. They can't vote against the Senate amendment to place Grant on the retired list with Shields, without defeating the latter. It will be a bitter pill for the Confederates to swallow, but they must take the dose.

Minister Noyes has given the Democrats notice that he is willing to face investigation at any time and place. General Garfield, on Monday, presented to the House of Representatives a cable dispatch from Mr. Noyes stating that he desired to be subpoenaed by the Fraud Committee.

The New York Herald is authority for the statement that Matt. Carpenter has turned of Washington and that he will return to Milwaukee where he will hereafter permanently reside. It is rumored that he proposes to re-enter political life.

Glover should have been made chairman of the Fraud Committee. He has been so successful in catching Democrats when he was in search of Republicans, that he would have made a good haul for his own party in this case.

The famine in China is still spreading destruction among the people. In one portion of the Empire there are seventy-five millions of persons in a starving condition.

Governor Smith has returned from Washington and will issue his proclamation to-day for an extra session of the Legislature to convene on the 4th of June.

Of course Butler is a lawyer of extraordinary acumen—he is a brilliant lawyer—but he will astonish his political friends and confound his enemies.

FROM MADISON.

Special Dispatch to the Janesville Gazette.
MADISON, May 21.—Gov. Smith returned from Washington last evening. In an interview this morning, he stated that he had just received official information from the Legislative Revision Committee, that their work was completed and that he would issue his proclamation this afternoon, convening the Legislature in extra session, on Tuesday, the fourth of June, copies of which will be mailed and sent to each member of the Legislature.

Gov. Smith reports the best of feeling prevailing at Washington between Republican members of Congress and the President and is of the opinion that the passing of the investigating resolutions is the very best thing for uniting the Republican party.

THE EAST.

War Between England and Russia Inevitable—Changes in the Organization of the Cabinet—Popular Feeling.

OTTAWA, Can. May 21, 1878.—The Government received a dispatch from the Imperial Government this afternoon announcing that war between England and Russia is inevitable.

LONDON, May 21, 1878.—The Herald's St.
Petersburg correspondent telegraphed last evening as follows: "Nothing further has yet transpired here regarding the results of Count Schouvaloff's mission. At the palace it is regarded as certain that the late hesitations of the Emperor were overcome by a letter from Berlin counseling full concessions in view of the existence of revolutionary indications. It is announced on credible authority that changes in the organization of the Cabinet are contemplated, Schouvaloff to return and take the chief direction of public affairs. General dissatisfaction among the people is manifesting itself on the subject of the concessions said to have been made to England. It would be idle work to send you the wild and generally ridiculous rumors that circulate in reference to the conditions formulated and accepted." Prince Gortschakoff is almost everywhere pronounced incapable. Indeed he is blamed with all the humiliation that is said Russia has submitted to. General sympathy is now centering round Ignatieff.
The very fact that he is in disfavor at court renders him popular with the masses."

THE INQUEST.

MINNEAPOLIS, May 20.—In the Coroner's inquest on the victims of the mill explosion to-day, Profs. Peckham and Peck, of the State University, submitted voluminous reports of investigations and practical experiments made to demonstrate the fact that the explosion was caused by the ignition of mill dust floating in the air, probably from sparks generated by the friction of the stones, and the consequent formation of an explosive gas. The report of Prof. Peck contains a long list of recommendations as to the prevention of similar disaster in mills.

RETIRED.

Shields Goes on the Retired List, and So Does Our Soldier Statesman.
General Grant—Fields a Republican.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The bill to relieve the Democrats of the House from the results of a blunder, otherwise known as the bill to place General Shields on the retired list of the army, was called up in the Senate to-day by Mr. Cockrell, of Missouri. Senator Sargent drew from Mr.
Cockrell, by a series of questions, the reasons why Shields was entitled to distinguished honor; and Mr. Sargent, remarking that those reasons were tenfold more applicable to another soldier, offered an amendment suggested some time ago in these dispatches, placing General Grant on the retired list, with the full rank of General. This created much surprise in the Senate and disgust among the Democrats, who found themselves called upon to face a very ugly dilemma. They were compelled either to honor Grant or to dishonor him, and they concluded to dishonor him, knowing that the Democratic party and the late confederacy would sustain them in it.
Oglesby made a sensible speech, in which he opposed the singling out of any soldiers for special distinction, and argued that the privates of the army were just as much entitled to the honors and emoluments a government had to offer its soldiers as the officers. Oglesby nominated Grant for President in 1860, by saying that Grant had already received distinguished honors from this country, and he hoped he would live to receive them again. At this a smile went around the chamber, the Democrats did not desire to discuss the question, a vote was taken, and the amendment was carried by one vote. Lamar was the only Democrat who voted in favor of placing Grant on the retired list. Oglesby was the only Republican who voted against it.

Davis, of Illinois, voted with the Democrats against Grant.

Shields and his friends are more indignant at his defeat because it has turned out that General Fields, of the Egyptian army, is a Republican and has been one ever since our war. After he surrendered with Lee, he went to Baltimore as a commission merchant, and in the campaign of 1868 took an active part in support of Grant and the Republican ticket. He was an officer of the Republican Club, and not only voted, but made speeches for the Republican ticket. After Grant was elected, Fields came to Washington, and securing the support of several Republican Congressmen, asked President Grant to appoint his son as a cadet at large to the West Point Military Academy. Soon after he went to Egypt under a contract with the Khedive, and served four years as an officer in the Egyptian army. About a year ago he came to Washington and upon the recommendation solely of Republicans, he received the appointment of Assistant Engineer under the District government, where he served effectively until elected Doorkeeper. He has turned out to be the best Doorkeeper the House has had for several years. These facts, of course, as they become known, galled the Democrats, and especially those who enjoy intimate relations with General Shields.
It was a case of the House choosing a Confederate, even though he is a Republican, instead of a Federal soldier, even though he is a Democrat.

THE INVESTIGATION.

Conjectures Concerning the Action of the Democrats on the Potter Investigation.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The Democratic National Committee will meet here Wednesday, and a large number of prominent Democrats who are not members, have been invited here for the purpose of consultation. The principal topic for consideration will be the proper course for the party to pursue in respect to the investigation under the Potter resolution and the movement against President Hayes. The plan of the extreme Democrats is as follows: When the committee shall find, if they ever do, evidence upon which they can convince the country that the electoral votes of Louisiana and Florida should have been counted for Tilden, a resolution will be presented in the House declaring that the seating of President Hayes and Vice President Wheeler was illegal, and declaring vacancies to exist in their offices. If this resolution passes the House it is expected also to pass the Senate, and in that case Congress will refuse to longer recognize either President Hayes or Vice President Wheeler, but will recognize as President of the United States the man who shall be elected President pro tem of the Senate, and this Senator is intended to be Thurman. There is not the slightest probability of these revolutionary proceedings ever being carried into effect, but there are Democrats absurd enough to propose them. In the first place, there are sufficient Democrats in the House who would unite with the Republicans to make a majority against such a resolution, and if Potter's committee attempt in any respect to reopen the Presidential question, they will be met by an opposing force of the entire Republican strength and fully one-third of the Democrats.

THE GREENBACKERS.

A Call Issued for a Congressional Convention in the Second District.

MADISON, May 20.—Messrs. H. A. Tenney, R. E. Warner and Peter Houston, committee, issued a call to night for a greenback convention for the Second Congressional District, to be held in the State Capitol Thursday, June 6, at 12 M., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress and organizing the soft money forces for the forthcoming campaign.
The convention will be a mass and not a delegate gathering.

THE SILVER DOLLAR.

NEW YORK, May 20.—The Treasury Department has discontinued the payment of standard silver dollars for Treasury notes at the Sub-Treasury in this city. The object of paying out silver for greenbacks was to get the former into general circulation, but nearly all issued in this manner returned to it in the payment of custom duties, the persons concerned thereby saving the premium on gold. For similar reasons the amount of silver now issued at Baltimore for Treasury notes is limited to $5 at a single payment.

JOSEPH E. JOHNSTON.

NEW YORK, May 20.—The Tribune's Washington correspondent says: "Richmond newspapers and public men in Virginia believe Joseph E. Johnston, the ex-Confederate General, will be elected to Congress from the Richmond District almost unanimously. He is one of the most conservative Democrats in his State, and an outspoken supporter of the general policy of Hayes' Administration."

TEMPERANCE.

NEW YORK, May 20.—Representatives of the Grand Lodge of Good Templars joined with the American Temperance Union at the Cooper Union yesterday in welcoming Dr. F. R. Lees, of London, chief temple-ar of England, and Rev. Dr. Stephen Todd, chaplain of the order, who have just arrived in this country.

THE EDISON RAT TRAP.

On the Principle of Some Modern Savings Banks.

Oil City Derrick: Yesterday, a strange man, carrying what appeared to be a small coffin, paused in front of the oil exchange.
He was a sad faced man, and his black suit glistened in the sunlight like an armor. He put down his strange burden, and bowed to the men standing around. Then casting his eyes up at the building he began, "Gentlemen I congratulate you. You have reared here a structure which is second to none in the country. When you shall have gone to that bourne from whence no traveler returns," and he glanced sorrowfully at the little coffin, "this beautiful building will remain a monument to your energy and enterprise. But, gentlemen, poor as I may seem, great as the contrast is between us, I have that in this little box before me, and he tapped the coffin reverently with his cane, "which I would not exchange for all the wealth of your oil regions. It is, gentlemen," and he voluntarily shrank back, "it is, gentlemen, a rat-trap which I am introducing for Mr.
Edison, of Menlo Park." The crowd closed up again. "It is his latest invention, and as he says himself, his best. I have handled a great many rat-traps in my life, and I can safely say that this one knocks the socks off all of them. Don't crowd up too close till I show it to you," and he took off the top and exposed a box with a lot of apartments communicating with each other by little doors, windows and openings of one kind and another.
"The great inventor named this the 'Citizens savings rat-trap,' because it operates on the same principle as a savings bank. You see, the rat smells the cheese, and enters by the front door," and the trapman indicated the aperture with his cane; "thence in quest of some cheese, which is a sort of rat's fatness, through this door, which admits him to parlor A, or the cashier's room. This door closes behind him, and he passes thence to parlor B, or the directors' room; this door closes behind him, as before, and he proceeds to parlor C, or the president's private apartment. By an ingenious arrangement the closing of each little door removes the cheese into the next room, in this way always keeping it one room in advance of the rat that sees it —until the last room is reached (parlor D) when it is swung noiselessly to the front apartment for the allotment of another victim. Once inside of a door, no rat can get out, but rats on the outside can get in, until the trap is full." "What's all that got to do with a saving bank?" asked a receiving teller who was in the crowd. "Everything, my dear friend, everything," replied the strange man; "because, you see, when the trap is full it closes—liabilities large, assets nothing."

What Becomes of the School Ma'am?

Philadelphia Times.

In Ohio it has been discovered what becomes of all the school ma'ams, and it seems they get married very much as do young women when they have a chance. In the city of Dayton alone—and Dayton isn't a very large place—sixteen school ma'ams are to be married this summer, and there are preliminary symptoms that the number going in the same direction will be considerably increased before the season is far advanced. This is a very proper thing, because there is no good reason why a school ma'am shouldn't get married as well as any body else, and because there are more school ma'ams than can find remunerative employment now, but if they are to be taken off in this wholesale way all your young women will want to go to Dayton school ma'ams, and that must cause embarrassment. It would be absurd to suppose that every woman who teaches school in Dayton can find a husband without difficulty, or that there are enough young men in Dayton to go around. It is singular that we never heard of a school ma'am getting married anywhere else.

"Where the Woodbine Twined."

New York Correspondence Utica Herald.
Speaking of Jim Fisk, one is reminded of that expression so frequently used by him, "Gone where the woodbine twined." Fisk attended to the sailing of the Sound steamer every afternoon, and then made drift for his usual haunt of splendid revelry, which was Delmonico's, in Fifth avenue. His best route brought him to Sixth avenue, corner Thirtieth street, where stood a building covered with greenery, and called the "Woodbine." It was a popular drinking-house, and it is said that some of Fisk's cronies were among its patrons. It thus became a common thing for him, when asked concerning any one, to reply, "Gone where the woodbine twin-eth."

Out of Tune.

When the tones of a musical instrument become harsh and discordant, we say it is "out of tune." The same may be said of that far more wonderful and complicated piece of mechanism, the human structure, when it becomes disordered. Not only actual disease, but those far more common causes, care, overwork, mental anxiety, and fast living, may impair its vigor and activity. The best remedy for a partial collapse of the vital energies, from these as from other causes, is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which is at the same time an agreeable and mind-cheering cordial, and the best possible invigorant in all cases of debility. It is an incomparable stomachic and anti-bilious medicine, eradicates fever and ague, and prevents subsequent attacks. It remedies with certainty and thoroughness bowel and kidney complaints, dyspepsia, nervousness, rheumatic troubles, and many other bodily ailments. It also counteracts influences which predispose to disease.

CITY AND COUNTY.

BRIFLETS.

—May be its May, but it don't act so.
—Bad weather for races, and especially for the human race.
—Base ball is no better for the better to bet on than last year.
—Bear in mind the Temple of Honor entertainment this evening.
—Mr. Cyrus Bliss suffered a slight paralytic stroke, last night, and is quite seriously ill.
—Mrs. Charles Penman, whose serious illness was announced yesterday, is some better to-day.
—Fishing excursions are plenty, but the boys bring back fully as many fish stories as they do fishes.
—Mrs. Burr Robbins is improving in health, and hopes to be able to leave, next week, to join her husband.
—Patrick Connors has something to say in another column, about the price and quality of old Bourbon whiskey.
—The dry goods men report the sales of red ribbon as having dropped off some. Just wait till the club gets at work.
—Some sneak-thief has bereft Mr. S. M. Rockwood, of a $50 watch taken from a vest hanging in his house in the First ward.
—The Milton Avenue Dramatic Company will give an entertainment at the residence of Mr. J. R. Bennett, next Friday evening.
—Mr. James A. Webb, who has been confined to the house by illness, for a few days, is again able to be at his place of business.
—The price of admission to the Hessian Band concert to-morrow night, has been reduced to 25 and 35 cents. At such remarkably low rates there can be no excuse for not enjoying the musical feast.
—Dr. S. S. Judd is contemplating procuring a telephone to establish communication between his office and his house, his ever increasing and large practice making such a convenience almost a necessity.
—Two brothers were fooling with a gun near the pickle factory when it was accidentally discharged the shot finding a resting place in the ankle of a boy named Murphy, but not inflicting a serious wound.
—Mr. Stanley Benton, of Lima, says that Rolla Godfrey, a neighbor, seriously abused him by thumping him in the eye, and draping it deeply. He feels grieved about it, and proposes to have Godfrey answer a charge of assault.
—The annual meeting and election of officers of the Young Men's Christian Association takes place to-morrow morning at 9:30 o'clock at the rooms of the association. All members are requested to be present.
—Lightning struck the barn of Mr. D. C. Beach, about a mile and a half northeast of Footville, Sunday night. It caught fire and burned to the ground, causing a total loss of the building and its contents of farming implements, grain, and a team of horses. Insured in the Continental.
—Mr. Hugh Chapin, of the town of Janesville, had a large iron bar which he used in his quarry, stolen the other night. He accused an Indian Ford man of the theft, and an officer has gone forth with a warrant. The accused will now have an opportunity to practice at the bar. The property is valued at $10.
—Remember the Hessian Band concert to-morrow evening. As it is a benefit for Mr. G. C. Fritz, an old resident of Janesville, and the advance agent of the Band, there should be a dual incentive to attend. The concert will be a choice one, and when such worthy entertainments are placed on the boards there should be a most liberal patronage. Hurry to secure your pastedowns.
—Five probationers of the Angie Worm Club went out with their rods yesterday, and at night returned with 110 fish. Some of the heartless unbelievers cannot exactly understand how they caught so many when they only had eighty minutes, but if they had seen the boys dicker with an old man who had been at work all day with a net, they would have understood it better.
—The committee having in charge the Lawler monument, met last evening and awarded the contract to J. Tuckwood for $275. It is to be built of Italian marble, with a base of limestone. Above the limestone will be the base of marble, and rising upon this an octagon column rising about thirteen feet and surmounted by a cross. Messrs. R. Brown, Levi B. Carle, and Thomas Mshon will superintend the work.
—Steven Caniff, was arrested last night on the charge of larceny. It is claimed that he stole some boots, shirts, a razor and some other articles from Mr. L. D. St. John, who keeps a restaurant on Main street. It is also alleged that he helped himself to various articles from the shoe factory, where he has been employed, and some table ware from a family where he boarded. Caniff has been drinking considerable of late, but it will surprise many of his acquaintances to learn of these more serious charges laid at his door.
—Mrs. Stowers, the wife of Rev. Mr. Stowers, who was formerly pastor of the First Methodist church of this city, came to Janesville this afternoon with the remains of her little two-year-old daughter Nellie. While the family were living here they buried one child in the cemetery here, and now bring this one to place beside the other. Mr. Stowers is in Lawli, Idaho, where he has an Indian agency, and could not be present. Friends in this city met the bereaved mother at the depot, and accompanied her to the cemetery.
—Some time ago a Mrs. Eunice Backus, died in this city, and after years of silence inquiries are now being made by relatives concerning the particulars. The parties seeking information desire to know whether she had a girl by the name of Ada, or Adaline, and if so whether she married Byron Backus, or whether she left Janesville with him, married or not. The friends learned that John Connors, now in Wau-pas, knew something about her, and was present when Mrs. Backus died, but a letter from him states that he remembers nothing of her.

—A new slight-of-hand trick is now catching the boys. The performer asks the victim to hand him a silver quarter or half and he will show him a trick. The victim marks it and hands it over. The performer shakes the coin up with a lot of others, and then asks the victim to point out the one he gave him. He does so.
—“Are you sure that you gave me that one?”
“Certainly, there's the mark.” “You gave me that quarter?” “Certainly.” “Ah, right, much obliged,” and the doer of the trick successfully accomplishes it by taking the victim at his word and walking off with the coin which was given him.

—The Mutual Improvement Club held its closing meeting of the season last evening. Mr. C. W. Baker presented a paper on “Thoreau,” Mrs. McHenry presented a paper on “Culprit Pay,” and Mr. Jones gave a study of “Emerson.” The Club now has sixty volumes in its library, has given twenty lectures under its auspices during the season, and has a balance of $17 in the treasury. The Club has done a good work in the past, not only benefiting its members, but tending to elevate the taste and improve the culture of the community. Mr. and Mrs. Jones will give a reception to the Club June 10, and the Emerson readings will be resumed during the summer.

—The friends of the Temple of Honor and those interested in the success of the cold-water movement should not forget the strawberry festival at Temple hall to-night. Everything has been arranged for making it one of the most enjoyable occasions of the season. There will be an abundance of edibles, and an over-flow of sociability. Those who delight in the giddy whirl will have a chance to dance after 10 o'clock. Anderson's full band will be present, and everything made as attractive and pleasant as possible. There should be a general rally, and all who attend can have the double assurance of a good time and aiding a praiseworthy enterprise.

THE WEATHER.

The thermometer at 7 o'clock stood at 52 degrees above zero, and at 9 o'clock at 61 degrees above. Cloudy. One year ago to-day at corresponding hours the thermometer stood at 49 and 74 degrees above. The indications to-day are rising barometer, cooler west to north winds, and clear or partly cloudy weather, with occasional showers.

LABEL SUITS.

The libel suits of Whitford vs. Goodrich and Goodrich vs. Gazette Printing Company, have been continued till the next term of the Circuit Court, on application, in each case, of Mr. Goodrich.

THE CIRCUIT COURT.

The jury in the case of C. N. Richards yesterday found him guilty of burglary. The case of the State against Walter Lawrence was on trial to-day. The defendant is charged with larceny. It is claimed that he presented at Cleghorn's bank in Clinton, a grain ticket, and that the teller figured the amount due upon it and paid him $75.00 when it should have been $75.50. Lawrence denies that he was paid more than the last named amount.

BASE BALL.

The Chicagoans defeated the Indianapolis by 3 to 1 yesterday.
At Syracuse, Stars 19, Rochester 1.
At Utica, Buffalos 6, Utica 3, twelve innings.
At Binghamton, Crickets 3, Alleghenys 0.
The Milwaukee base ball management has retired Redmond and will try Morgan, who is expected to arrive in Milwaukee from St. Louis to-day, in time for the game with the Indianapolis. Pools are selling in Milwaukee $25 to $30 in favor of Milwaukee.

—The old folks' concert.
Last Friday and Saturday the ladies of the Methodist church at Clinton held a fair in Union hall. They had a large and varied stock of goods which sold well. Meals were served twice each day, which were well patronized. On Friday evening they gave an old folks' concert which was very fine. Messrs. D. C. Bennett, Arthur Conant, Dr. M. A. Newman, and Dr. G. A. Newman, of Janesville, assisted greatly in the concert, and took a prominent part in the programme, which was a good one. The hall was well filled, and every one seemed delighted. The ladies desire, through the Gazette, to thank all of their friends for their assistance and patronage particularly recommend “Ye tooth-puller & Co.” to any one desiring to have any good singing. The ladies were greatly gratified with the success of their enterprise as it cleared about $180 cash.

—Surprised surprisers.
Fifteen of Janesville's gay lads and fifteen of Janesville's fair lassies arranged for a joyous occasion to take place last evening. They proposed to surprise some Milton friends, and have a merry dance in order not to make too great a parade, and attract too marked attention, it was decided that all but one of the gentlemen together with Anderson's band, should go by themselves on the train, leaving one young gentleman to escort the fifteen young ladies in another party. The gentlemen and the band reached Milton in safety but on looking about for the young ladies found that the places which ought to know them knew them not. By some mistake in time or direction, the young man who was to see that the ladies reached the depot in time, did not get them to the depot in time to catch the train, and the young men were consequently left alone. They sat in the depot at Milton with the band, and allowed the hours to drag wearily and drearily by until the returning train bore them back homeward sometime after midnight. This morning they were busy setting up with the band for not playing at a surprise party which never took place.

FUNERAL OF MR. S. G. WILLIAMS.

A large number of sympathizing friends gathered this afternoon at the funeral services of Mr. S. G. Williams, which were held at the family residence.

The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Sanderson, pastor of the Presbyterian church, of which society the deceased was one of the early organizers. Mr. Sanderson read the description of heaven as given in the revelation of St. John. A quartet consisting of Mrs. H. A. Smith, Mrs. Moseley, Messrs. John Wingate and J. G. Rexford sang “Asleep in Jesus,” after which Mr. Sanderson read the exhortation of Christ to his disciples of “Let not your hearts be troubled,” and the following verses, and at the conclusion of the reading spoke a few fitting words to the bereaved relatives and sympathizing friends there assembled. He deemed it not a time for fulsome eulogies of the departed, but rather a time in which to learn the lessons which God in his providence intended thus to teach. He spoke of the home of the spirit, and urged the mourning ones to seek that comfort which came from Christ, and from the teachings of the gospel. Such an occasion impressed one with the feebleness of the worship and the praise of human lips, and the glorious sensation one must experience when reaching the other shore, and finding full and free expression for the soul in joyful song. The speaker's remarks were full of tenderness, and impressive.

At the close of the services at the house a large number followed the remains to their last resting place, Hon. H. S. Conger, Hon. J. B. Doe, Dr. Palmer, Captain Edward Rogers, S. A. Hudson Esq., Mr. F. S. Lawrence, Hon. Andrew Palmer, and Mr. Joseph A. Wood acting as pall-bearers.

Mr. Williams was a most tender husband and kind father, and the sudden death has proved a crushing blow to the family. His neighbors and friends showed not only their sympathy for the bereaved ones, but their respect for the departed, by attending the services in large numbers. The services were very impressive and solemn.

SHOPIERE.

—The warm rain of last Sunday has revived vegetation that got smitten by the heavy frost.
—Sheriff Coley came around last week inviting a good number of citizens to appear as witnesses at the Circuit Court on Monday, May 20.

—The building of the Town house will be postponed for the present because an injunction has been served on the Supervisors to wait till a hearing can be heard as to its legality.
—At the seven o'clock train arrived Thursday morning, Mr. J. H. Poole's high-minded team concluded they did not care about stopping so they started on a dead run for home with Mr. Poole doing his best at the reins, but two miles they made before they could be stopped. Mr. Poole was very fortunate in coming out of the race with only the loss of his hat.
—Some of our farmers who planted their corn in April, the weather being so cold and wet since, the seed rotted so they had to plant again last week.
—We took a walk through Mr. George Sears' mill and saw the machinery that have one of the best mills in the State, having put under the mill a new stone foundation that will stand for ages, five sets of new bolts, and any quantity of new machinery that will manufacture flour that Mr. Sears will be called upon to furnish to his many patrons at home and abroad.

—Mr. Shumaker has found a number of his sheep wounded of late and concluded that it must be the work of dogs, but it appears that a colt which was pasturing in the field with them had done most of the damage to the flock.
—Some of the citizens complain that they have more help to milk their cows than they need when they are not present.
—Mr. Bruce is raising a fine herd of short-horn cattle. He shipped a beauty to Minnesota lately.

Public Health Jeopardized.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is known to be free from these substances, and is used in the families of the most careful and sagacious medical men in this country.

The Grand Central Hotel, New York, has long been a favorite with Southern people. Now that the St. Nicholas room to close, it is presumed that the Grand Central will absorb a still larger proportion of the Southern trade.

The most excellent attributes to the success of a first class hotel are courteous treatment, a well appointed cuisine, and well-furnished rooms. You can find all these at the Colorado Hotel, Philadelphia.

A Remarkable Result.

It makes no difference how many physicians, or how much medicine you have tried, it is now an established fact that German Syrup is the only remedy which has given complete satisfaction in severe cases of Lung Diseases. It is true there are yet thousands of persons who are predisposed to Throat and Lung Affections, Consumption, Hemorrhages, Asthma, Severe Colds settled on the breast, Pneumonia, Whooping Cough, etc., who have no personal knowledge of Bosche's German Syrup. To all such we would say that 50,000 doses were sold last year without one complaint. Consumptives try just one bottle. Regular size 75 cents. Sold by all druggists in America. dec20d1w

Sewing Machine War.

H. B. DeLong invites the public to call and judge for themselves whether or not he is selling the Singer, as implied by an ad. Nor does he acknowledge the Singer to be as good as the imported Williams, White, Davis, or the new “Home” which he is agent for, but said advertiser, when he could not sell his own goods, offers the goods of others at less than cost. He has done this time and again, and can have all that he wants of that kind of business. Now, it pays said advertiser to cry “Bogus” and pocket ten or fifteen dollars. The machine in question is the imported Williams Singer, manufactured by the best English steel, and is perfect in every detail. Don't fail to call and examine this “Bogus” machine, which together with the other above mentioned machines will, for the next thirty days, be sold at cost. Water street, 4 doors South of Jail. my12d1w
